

ANDREA FELDE

Master in Business Administration

Specialist trainings and skills

- Systemic organisational and personnel development (Institute for Systemic Professionalism)
- Solution-focused therapy and counselling (SYST Institute)
- Body psychotherapist (Institute for Core Psychosomatics)
- Certified Project Manager (International Project Management Association)

Key subjects

- Systemic organisational and personnel development consulting for companies and managers
- Conceptual design and facilitation of training courses and workshops focused on leadership, project management, change management and conflict resolution
- Executive coaching (Executives, managers and project managers) and personal coaching
- Facilitation of team development workshops, conflict mediation and moderation of team workshops

Team and organisational development and supervision

- Team building workshops
- Consulting, coaching, facilitation and moderation of change processes

Training and coaching

- Project management
- Leadership development programmes
- Conflict resolution
- Change management

Working languages

- German
- English

Work experience

- Project manager in several national and international projects with a major European bank
- Several years of experience in leading international teams and working internationally
- More than 15 years experience as a consultant, trainer and coach in Germany, Italy, East- and Southeast- Europe, Asia (incl. China), Middle East, Australia, North- and Latin- America and Canada
- Long experience in working with profit and non profit organisations